

Not for the feint hearted! Engineers report being supplied. It MUST be sold!

And it's a MUST to inspect. Call your 'tradie' mates as you might need some help to bring this 'full brick' gem back to its former glory!

A structural engineers report is being supplied to all genuinely interested parties! Photos 11-12 show the defects to the external bathroom which was an addition.

This home, in its day would have been 'iconic' and with some effort & a bit of elbow grease, 'she' would be right back in her element.

This full brick home with suspended concrete floors, three-dimensional ornate cornices with recessed lighting, is comfortable and sturdy.

It simply needs some polishing!

Currently set up as six bedrooms with three bathrooms and two kitchens; one being a relatively new sleek granite stone top kitchen, it comfortably caters for the largest of families and extended families.

Complimented with open plan living areas, an in-ground pool, a double garage, with side access and parking for all of the toys, as well as highly motivated sellers, means it is a must to inspect.
